Flagstaff Arts and Leadership Academy
Job Description

POSITION/TITLE: Director - Board of Directors

TERM: 3 Years - May apply for additional term

SALARY: None

QUALIFICATIONS:

1. Must be older than 18 years.
2. Significant experience and qualifications to further the Board's commitment to the educational purposes of FALA - weight given to school administration, finance, fundraising and organizational development
3. Complete Notarized Affidavit, Disclosure and Consent for Background and Credit Check
4. Official transcripts from the highest post-secondary education institution attended
5. Pass a valid fingerprint clearance card
6. Submit a current resume

The Board performs the following basic functions necessary to the discharging of its responsibilities: legislative, executive, and appraisal.

- The legislative function is the policy-making aspect of the Academy. It is the policy of the Board to retain and exercise full legislative authority and control over the Academy by adopting general policies or by acting directly in matters not covered by its policies.
- The executive function of the Board is concerned with placing in operation existing Board policy. Most of this function is delegated by the Board to its executive and administrative officer, the Executive Director.
- The appraisal function involves the determination of the efficiency of the Academy operation and an evaluation of the educational program of the Academy based on the policies as outlined in the policy manual.

JOB GOAL: To further the mission of the Flagstaff Arts and Leadership Academy by ensuring compliance with state and federal regulations concerning the operations of the Academy.

The duties and obligations of an individual Board member include the following:

1. To become familiar with the state's school laws, regulations of the State Department of Education, Arizona State Board for Charter Schools, and Academy policies, rules, and regulations.
2. To have a general knowledge of the educational aims and objectives of the Academy.
3. To work harmoniously with other Board members without neglecting a proper share of the work or trying to dominate the Board.
4. To work with other Board members to establish effective Board policies and to delegate authority for the administration of the schools to the Executive Director.
5. Work with the Executive Director and staff on goal setting and strategic planning.
6. To vote and act in Board meetings impartially for the good of the Academy.
7. To accept the will of the majority vote in all cases, and give wholehearted support to the resulting policy.
8. To accept the responsibility for confidentiality in appropriate matters, especially those dealing with personnel and the divulging of privileged information that could cost the Academy money, support, or public confidence.
9. To represent the Board and the Academy to the public in a manner that promotes both interest and support.
10. To refer complaints to the proper school authorities and to refrain from individual counsel and action.
11. To closely monitor the finances of the institution and ensure fiscal responsibility.
12. To take responsibility for ensuring that policies and procedures reflect the best practices of accounting, compliance, operations, academic standards, and personnel.
13. Come to Board meetings prepared by the school's administration.
14. Regularly attend Board meetings, alerting the Board President in advance when you must miss a meeting.
15. Attend as many FALA performances and exhibitions as possible.
16. Visit campus and attend classes during the school year.
17. Participate in fundraising in a way that makes sense for each individual Board member -- this can run the spectrum of directly asking for donations to letting friends and associates know about fundraisers and performance that the school is hosting.
18. Act as an ambassador for the school out in the community and among friends and colleagues.
19. Remember always that a Board member's first and greatest concern must be the educational welfare of the students attending the public schools.

REPORTS TO: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

EVALUATION: Performance will be evaluated in accordance with the provisions of Board policy.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to provide a transformative educational experience by cultivating academic excellence in the arts, sciences, and humanities and developing leadership. We support the individual growth of each student through our nurturing educational community.

Our Principles & Purpose

Fine and Performing Arts: Learning about artistic forms, history, techniques, art critique, and artists in a variety of artistic disciplines supports self-expression and creativity. The breadth and depth of art courses at FALA guide students to follow their own artistic passions. FALA graduates value and practice art for the rest of their lives and are prepared to pursue advanced studies in artistic disciplines.

College Preparatory: Participating in sequences of rigorous and thought-provoking courses cultivates vital skill development. All FALA courses incorporate written, oral, and artistic forms of communication and critical inquiry, along with building increased knowledge and understanding. The liberal arts focused education at FALA supports the success of our graduates in college and university settings.

Leadership: Translating understanding into action in one's daily life and in the community is how FALA defines leadership. Community may include friends, family, peers, and local and global groups of people and organizations. The experiences at FALA, including an emphasis on service learning, build confidence, understanding, empathy and communication, and empower students to be leaders in their lives and the world.

Habits of Heart and Mind

The FALA Habits of Heart and Mind are five values, or ways of being, that guide students throughout their time at FALA and beyond. In the classroom, during performances, by doing service, during personal interactions, or through creative projects, students at FALA embrace and embody these Habits and faculty and staff at FALA use these habits to guide their educational decisions and practices.

Common Good: Building a functional community by evaluating the impact of individual actions on the rest of the group and making decisions accordingly.

Connection and Collaboration: Working with diverse concepts, techniques, objects and people to further meaningful intellectual and artistic understandings.

Investment: Demonstrating a commitment to education and learning by taking responsibility for personal success and making significant contributions to FALA.

Governing Board Compact

2016-2017 School Year

Our mission is to provide a transformative educational experience by cultivating academic excellence in the arts, sciences, and humanities and developing leadership. We support the individual growth of each student through our nurturing educational community.

The Governing Board of the Flagstaff Arts and Leadership Academy is the body entrusted with ensuring compliance with state and federal regulations concerning the operations of the school. Additionally, the Board approves the adoption of policies and procedures relating to FALA academic standards, admissions, attendance, and personnel.

The Governing Board is fiscally responsible for the institution's finances and accounting procedures. Individual Board members are not personally liable for debts incurred by the institution, but rather, responsible as a Board for ensuring the fiscal sustainability of the institution.

Board members are expected to attend all meetings unless an occasional emergency or scheduling conflict arises. Board members are encouraged to attend FALA's theatrical, dance, and music performances, and art exhibitions and other opportunities to get to know the students, the faculty and the staff.

In exchange for this faithful service to FALA, Board members can expect that they will be provided with timely and accurate information so that they are able to make informed decisions. FALA administration pledges to communicate openly and honestly about all matters affecting the school that in turn affect how the Board governs.

Flagstaff Arts and Leadership Academy Governing Board Expectations

- Closely monitor the finances of the institution and ensure fiscal responsibility
- Take responsibility for ensuring that policies and procedures reflect the best practices of accounting, compliance, operations, academic standards, and personnel
- Work with the Executive Director and staff on goal setting and strategic planning
- Read all materials provided by the school's administration
- Come to board meetings prepared to participate in discussions
- Regularly attend board meetings, alerting the Board president in advance when you must miss a meeting
- Attend as many FALA performances and exhibitions as possible
- Visit campus and attend classes during the school year
- Participate in fundraising in a way that makes sense for each individual Board member—this can run the spectrum of directly asking for donations to letting friends and associates know about fundraisers and performances that the school is hosting
- Act as an ambassador for the school out in the community and among friends and colleagues

What the Governing Board can expect from FALA's Administration and Staff

- To be provided with timely and accurate information
- To be included in discussions affecting the operations of the school
- To be shown gratitude for its service to the school
- To operate the school in a professional manner that portrays FALA in a positive light in the community and among FALA students, parents, and staff
